O R D E R:

The Government of Andhra Pradesh have decided to make at least one person e-Literate in every household of Andhra Pradesh and to create one entrepreneur from each and every family of Andhra Pradesh and to enhance the employability of students coming out of the Universities and make them industry ready. ITE&C Department, GoAP is closely working with academia, students and the industry for various initiatives to take up such as industry-academia collaboration, promotion of Gap year, faculty up gradation, up gradation of syllabus etc.

2. As per NASSCOM Report the present employability ratio of the pass outs from the engineering colleges is 8% where as the national average is 22%. Hence, there is a necessity for the Government to augment the IT employability ratio through appropriate training and knowledge enhancement interventions to the Third year / Final year students of the Engineering/Degree Colleges in whatever possible manner which may be supplementary and complimentary in nature.

3. In this regard, JNTU recommended to take up through a training partner who has expertise in providing both classroom and online training and who has experience in suggested programs preferably from abroad the training initiatives at various Universities and college campus in a comprehensive manner.

4. Basing on the above, APTS shortlisted M/s Value Thought Solutions as the training partner for implementation of initiative.

5. Further for undertaking the initiative through the shortlisted training partner, APTS has submitted a bill for Rs. 93,60,000/- towards Imparting IT Employability Training to the students in Engineering / Degree Colleges.
